MOVEMENTS AND PLANS OF THE GRANT FAMILY.

Mrs. Grant's illness not serious.—Colonel Fred. Grant accepted a position as Engineer in a Railroad Project—What the English People Think of the Funeral.
New York, Aug. 10.—The members of the Grant family left the Fifth Avenue Hotel this morning, went to the Grand Central depot and took the train for Mt. McGregor.

COLONEL GRANT RECEIVES AN ENGINEERING APPOINTMENT.
New York, Aug. 10.—The World prints the following special from Saratoga: I was shown a dispatch yesterday which says Colonel Fred Grant has accepted the position of engineer of the railroad company which is backed by the B. & O. and the Wisconsin Central, for the purpose of making a new entrance into Chicago. Colonel Grant will go to Chicago to take charge of his new work as soon as he has time to gather together his father's papers and the loose threads of his affairs. Col. Grant received a very thorough education as an engineer in the railroad business. There is no doubt that President Cleveland would give him a commission in the army, but Col. Grant, it is said, has finally resolved to take his chances in civil life.

THE PUBLISHING OF GEN. GRANT'S BOOK.
In an interview yesterday Col. Grant said the following about his book: "I think father's book will appear before long. We don't know exactly what or how much manuscript there is. The last phrase father wrote have not been looked over and there is a large amount of matter not yet in form for publication. On my return to Mt. McGregor I shall devote the next four weeks to looking over manuscripts. I shall make copies of all his papers and preserve the original ones. I am not yet sure whether or not there will be enough matter for two volumes, but what there is will be published with as little retouching as possible. The story will be brought down to my father's death, and when this has been done whatever there is will be printed."

MRS. GRANT'S HEALTH.
In regard to his mother's health he said: "My mother is physically very strong, and I have no doubt that in time she will regain her usual health. She has been confined uncomplainingly for a long time, to her sick room. If she had been very strong she would have broken down long ago. I think, with a change of surroundings, she will recover rapidly. As to the future plans of the family I cannot speak very definitely. We shall all go back to Mt. McGregor and remain there until fall, when the family must separate."

Mrs. Grant will doubtless occupy the house on Sixty-sixth street.
WHAT ENGLAND THINKS OF THE FUNERAL.
LONDON, Aug. 10.—All the morning newspapers today publish copious accounts of the funeral of General Grant. All agree that the outpouring of the people on the occasion, the scene and the deep grief as indicated by the dispatches were wonderful. The Times has a special dispatch three columns long detailing the scenes and incidents of the funeral. It also prints a leading editorial praising and recalling many personal traits of the dead general. It expresses unbounded admiration for the conduct of the American people concerning the burial of General Grant and pronounces the funeral a spontaneous outburst of national admiration and gratitude, which, although it can do nothing for its actual object, is not the less to be commended. In conclusion the Times says: "No other nation and no former period could have afforded materials for such a procession as that of Saturday, or even the physical conditions which enabled its members to come together."

GRANT'S OLD WAR HORSE DIES ON THE DAY OF THE HERO'S FUNERAL.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 10.—John Baker, of Eagle, Fayette county, a soldier who fought with Grant at Vicksburg, was the possessor of a horse which was shot under General Grant the day before Vicksburg fell. Though old the animal was without a blemish, except the scar received at Vicksburg. Last Thursday he refused food, and in spite of medical treatment, died on Saturday.

A BUNDY MEMORIAL IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Over 2,000 Union veterans and Southern veterans attended services in honor of General Grant at Battery D yesterday. The services were conducted under the auspices of the G. A. R. posts here. The address of the occasion was delivered by Bishop Tallows.

THE GRANT FAMILY AT THE CITY HALL.

New York, Aug. 10.—This morning the Grant family visited the City Hall, and after examining the surroundings of the spot where General Grant died in state, decided to have many floral tributes that remained in the Governor's room should be sent to the tomb.

KNOWS OF THE FUNERAL.

Every city of any consequence in the country held memorial services.
Even in Utah memorial services were held, and business was generally suspended.

Members of the Grant family in New York visited the tomb of the general yesterday afternoon.

One hundred and fifteen pickpockets and thieves were arrested in New York during the four days ended Sunday.

Nearly all of the dignitaries who attended the funeral have returned to their homes, and the larger portion of the thousands of visitors.

It is proposed to erect a monument to General Grant in Cincinnati, and also one on the site of the house in which he was born at Point Pleasant.

General Grant's life and character were the subject of lectures at several points in New York yesterday, the more notable one being by Rev. Robert Collyer.

Large numbers of people on Sunday visited the tomb in Riverside park, but only a few were admitted to the City Hall, where the emblems of mourning remain untouched.

At the tomb, ex-President Hayes, looking at his beard looking grayer and his hair whiter than before, was standing elbow to elbow to ex-President Arthur, whose deep blue eyes still maintained their wonted expression of surprise.

Gratitude that Survived Ten Years.

New York, August 10.—One day, more than ten years ago, Edward Allen, of Port Chester, saved a little daughter of L. P. Lorillard from drowning at Long Branch. After bringing the child to shore, Mr. Allen went immediately to the bathing house to resume his clothing, and soon afterward he and his friends left Long Branch. The matter soon passed out of his (Allen's) mind.

Last week he was surprised to receive a letter from Mr. Lorillard, now of Cleveland, with a note inclosed from his daughter, now grown to be a woman. With the letter was a check for $1,000 from the father, who said he had just learned from some acquaintances of Mr. Allen the address of the latter. Mr. Allen is a member of the Lawrence firm of Beck & Allen, at Port Chester. He is still a young man.

A Fever-Stricken Town.
SHAMOKA, Pa., Aug. 10.—The fever scourge is still in this town, and deaths are numerous. Today the Rev. Hugh Riley, past of the Primitive Methodist church, died. Everything is being done to purify the water. The disease is very similar to that which visited Plymouth.

THE DIKE SCANDAL.

Mr. Crawford Returns Sir Charles' Check and Sends His Wife for Divorce.
LONDON, Aug. 10.—The cloud of scandal which for the past two weeks has been floating above the head of Sir Charles Dike has burst at last. Irritated by the supposition of his friends for having accepted money to console his wounded honor, Mr. Donald Crawford, the outraged husband, has forwarded Sir Charles' check to Sir Granville with the request that it be returned to that gentleman, and yesterday he filed a petition for a divorce from his wife, citing Sir Charles as co-respondent.

Sir Charles continues to vehemently protest his innocence of the charge against him. It is said that Mrs. Crawford has withdrawn the confession made to her husband and when in the witness box will declare that the confession was not true and was made under hypothetical conditions. Mr. Crawford's friends insist that he has no defense except his wife's confession. The case will probably be heard in December.

The name of Sir Charles Dike has been expunged from the list of speakers for the coming electoral campaign. Sir Charles will pass the autumn at a villa near Toulon.

Only Three War Governors Left.
HARRISBURG, Aug. 10.—Speaking of the mortality among the prominent men of the war period, Governor Curtin remarked here the other day, that of the nineteen governors of northern states when the war began only three are now living. These are ex-Governors Kirkwood of Iowa, Sprague of Rhode Island, and himself. He attributes this mortality to the immense pressure and severe trials incident to executive duties during the war period.

Organized to Thrash Bad Boys.
MILAN, Ind., Aug. 10.—A vigilance committee has been organized to punish incorrigible boys. Last night John Bonfer, a son of the hotel keeper, who was recently sent to the penitentiary for passing counterfeit money, was caught, and he received a severe thrashing on account of indecency and general worthlessness. Masked men administered the medicine, and it has terrified other guilty ones.

Two Fort Wayne Brakemen Killed.
PITTSBURG, Aug. 10.—At Superior station, late last night, the Western limited express on the Fort Wayne railroad, struck Oliver Mitchell and Price Dillon, two brakemen who had just alighted from an accommodation train and were crossing the tracks. Mitchell was instantly killed, and Dillon was so badly mangled that no hopes of his recovery are entertained.

A Woman's Woe.
NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Keeney, who was sent to Raymond street jail, in Brooklyn, last week on contempt of court, in refusing to sign over a house to her husband, was sent word yesterday to Judge Clements that she would sooner die in jail than obey his order. Her imprisonment will be continued until she changes her mind.

Death of an Acrobat.
BUFFALO, Aug. 10.—Edward Belmont, the acrobat who was hurt while performing in the Van Amburg circus at Medina on Tuesday, died at the hospital in this city yesterday.

COLORED MASONS.

Meeting of the Grand Chapter and Grand Lodge in This City—Concert Tomorrow Night.

The Grand Chapter of the Colored Masonry of Ohio began its annual session this morning at 10 o'clock at Odd Fellows' hall, on the corner of Main and Centre streets. The session is presided over by Grand Master S. N. Clark, of Cincinnati, and the other officers of the Grand Chapter present were Deputy S. M. Gay, of Zanesville, and Grand Secretary Jerry Brown, of Cleveland.

They were rather late in coming together this morning, and nothing was done more than approve credentials and the representatives of the chapters, about twenty of whom had been dispersed by noon. The session of this afternoon began at 2 o'clock with closed doors. It will hold over tonight as there is a great mass of routine business to be disposed of. Tomorrow morning the Grand Lodge of the same body begins its annual session at the same place and will continue until evening. With those attending both bodies there are about 150 strangers in the city from all parts of the State. Taken all in all they are a remarkably good looking, intelligent crowd of men and women.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.

Quite an exciting runaway occurred on High street yesterday afternoon. A horse attached to a stage wagon belonging to T. M. Hiss, hitched in front of the office of Drs. Moore & Vance, on East High, broke from its moorings, dashed across the street and down the sidewalk to the corner of Lamont street, where it took the middle of the street. It ran on down to Market street where it turned and was caught by a plucky small boy in the center of the square. Nothing was broken but the hitching strap and nobody was hurt. Just as it was caught Jim Caranough came up and took possession, expecting to get the reward, but a few eye-witnesses gave him away to Hiss and the reward was given to the proper party.

SCARED INTO SUICIDE.

FEARING LYING, A MURDERER KILLS HIMSELF.

A Missouri Man, After Blowing His Divorced Wife's Brains Out, is Followed Home by an Angry Mob—Their Demonstrations Impel Him to Commit Suicide.
CANNONVILLE, Mo., Aug. 10.—Among others who attended the Presbyterian Church at Columbia, this county, Saturday night, were David Marshall and his divorced wife. At the close of the service, as Mrs. Marshall was being assisted to mount her horse by a young man of the neighborhood who had accompanied her to church, Marshall stole up behind his wife, placed a pistol to her head and blew her brains out. The murderer immediately surrounded by a mob of men who demanded his surrender. Thinking he was the victim of summary vengeance, Marshall placed a pistol to his head and fired, falling dead. The couple were married about three years ago. They lived together about a year, when Mrs. Marshall applied for and obtained a divorce. Since the separation he has been the victim of summary vengeance. Marshall placed a pistol to his head and fired, falling dead. The couple were married about three years ago. They lived together about a year, when Mrs. Marshall applied for and obtained a divorce. Since the separation he has been the victim of summary vengeance. Bob Tombs' Views of Grant and the Confederacy.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 10.—In an interview today, General Robert Tombs said that he was the greatest soldier produced by the war. General Grant was a very good engineer, a man of fine family, but no man to head an army. General Grant was simple-minded and honest, and had no more animosity toward the South than toward the North. Being a West Point graduate it was a surprise to him that the South was so wrong in the Confederate Presidency. It should have been Albert Sidney Johnston or General Joseph E. Johnston. The South was throttled by Davis' West Point ideas.

European Riders to Meet.

VIRGINIA, Aug. 10.—Extensive preparations are being made for the meeting of the Ohio and the Emperor of Austria, which will take place shortly at Transier. The cost of the decorations and other arrangements of the meeting will reach one million florins. The greatest efforts are being put forth by the authorities to prevent any attempt being made on the life of the emperor. Hundreds of the most experienced and trusted soldiers and detectives have been drafted for service at the town.

Man Amuck and Killed Himself.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 10.—George Miller, a victim of mania-a-potu, escaped from his home on the south side last evening, and with a large dirk-knife which he had secured in some way, created a panic in the streets by attacking pedestrians. After slaying and maiming three persons, the insane man went up into the second story of a house and jumped from the window, falling on the knife, which he still held in his hand, inflicting a fatal wound in the abdomen.

Proposed Bicycle Tournament.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Arrangements have just been completed for a great international handicap bicycle race, open to professional riders, to commence at Athletic park, Washington, September 21, for a purse of $500, divided into five prizes, mile heats. A FEMALE SLEUTH.

Mrs. Krumholz Accuses a Cripple of Attempted Rape and Uses Him Up.
Quite a lively row occurred this noon on North Market street, in which a stout woman, Mrs. Maggie Krumholz, evidently did up James B. Small, an old crippled employe of Gregory's livery stable. It seems that Mrs. K's little girl, five years old, had been playing about the livery stable and Small had dived her on his knee or something of that kind. When she started home he gave her a two-cent piece. On learning where she got it Mrs. Krumholz conceived the idea that Small had been trifling with the girl and called him into the saloon.

When he came in she accused him of attempting to rape her child and struck him a blow in the eye with her fist. Small was silent and stupefied with astonishment. Before he could pull himself together she seized a heavy piece of board and began to belabor him across the left arm and shoulder. Small made his escape to the stable and Mrs. Krumholz started up town for a policeman. At the corner of Main street she met Officer Wilson who had heard of the fight and was looking for her. He arrested her and took her before the mayor for a hearing this afternoon. The other employe of the stable and the officer of the Police Force Co., across the street, saw the whole performance, say that Small made not the slightest attempt to trifle with the child.

"TO TEACH THEM A LESSON."

The President to Allow the Austrian Mission to Remain Vacant.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—In consequence of the refusal of the Austrian government to receive Mr. Kelley it is said that the president has determined that he will allow the mission to remain in charge of the secretary of the legation for some time. This is done to teach the Austrians a lesson." President Cleveland is a mere tyro in diplomacy, which perhaps accounts for the fact that he will try this petty means to show his disapproval of the act of Austria in declining to receive his second-hand diplomatic agents. The president considers that the Emperor of Austria has fallen behind in the courtesy of life in not informing him of the reasons of his refusal to accept the United States diplomat, and in order to have him understand the exact feeling upon this subject in the United States he will take the course of allowing the mission to be vacant. This is another evidence that the president allows small things to trouble him very much more than he should do, and it is only on a par with the letter which he wrote to a democrat who deceived him the other day. Mr. Cleveland frequently slips over, and it is the general impression that he spilled himself half out in the Kelley case.

Dominick McCaffrey in Training to Meet Stronger Opponents.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—"Yes, it's a fact. I am to meet John L. Sullivan," said Dominick McCaffrey yesterday. "The match is now a fixture, and all arrangements have been made by my manager, Billy O'Brien. By a telegram which I received I am informed that the match is to take place on Aug. 31 at Chester Park in Cincinnati. The number of rounds have not yet been agreed on, but I should prefer six, or twenty-five, for that matter. The more the better. I shall start tonight for New Orleans, where I shall stay until a week before the contest. Then I shall go to Cincinnati."

"I saw heavy 195 pounds, and feel strong and hearty. Of course I shall have to come some time. I shall train mostly for wild, but I shall have a few rounds with me all right. A better trainer I don't know. I have been my ambition to meet the so-called champion of the world in a square encounter with the mittens or with bare knuckles, and I only hope they will make arrangements for a contest of longer duration than four rounds."

One Scourge succeeded by Another.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 10.—No sooner has the epidemic of typhoid fever ceased raging in the unfortunate town of Plymouth than it is succeeded by another plague scarcely less terrible. A severe form of dysentery is now prevalent in the town, and is said to be near Plymouth, and vicinity to an alarming extent and its ravages are more deadly than those of the fever. It is a disease that has always been frequent at Plymouth and the neighboring towns during the summer, but never before were there so many cases as at present, nor was the disease so violent and fatal to its results. Over 150 cases are now under treatment.

A Big Hotel Burned.

LAN VEGAS, N. M., Aug. 10.—The immense Montezuma Hotel at Colorado Hot Springs was totally destroyed by fire Saturday night. There were about 75 rooms occupied. Every thing escaped and nearly all the personal effects of the guests were saved. Of the furniture, only that on the ground floor was saved. The guests were compelled to improvise lodgings on the ground and went into camp for the night, while the firemen worked with relief force until long after daylight. The loss is $200,000, insurance $250,000. The origin of the fire is attributed to the wires of the electric lighting system becoming overheated and igniting the woodwork.

Fatal Results of a Highway Race.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Three wagons full of people, returning from a picnic, came abreast near the suburban town of Jefferson last night, and a race ensued, the horses being lashed into a run. Suddenly, a drunken man in one of the wagons snatched the lines from the driver. The wagon was overturned, the occupants being thrown out, and the driver was instantly killed. A baby was knocked out of its mother's arms and killed. Several others were badly injured. The locality is remote from telephone connection and the names of the victims have not been learned.

Cleveland Showing His Age.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Cleveland, like Arthur, shows his age very rapidly. He has been in the White House. He looks at least five years older than he did on March 4, and his face is anxious and careworn. He has already learned that the public trust that was imposed upon him by the people is a greater trust than any one man can handle, and keep his health, and it is more than likely that it will not be for his vacation this month he would entirely break down before Congress meets in December.

Another Objectionable Appointment.

PORT ERIC, Ont., Aug. 10.—James W. Nelson, who took part in the Fenian raid of 1860, has been appointed U. S. Marshal at this port. The appointment has aroused great indignation, and petitions are being signed by all inhabitants of the town praying that he shall not be allowed to "take office."
